Once upon a time...

Friday, September 23, 2011

Posted by Marta Coursey

Last week the San Juan Journal published a touching story about events that took place on the Hyak in the San Juan Islands on the tenth anniversary of September 11. While it is true that many of us have an unforgettable, shattering memory associated with every September 11, some people have the courage to share their lives with us and thus change how we remember things forever.

“Celebrating 60” Community Meetings

WSDOT Ferries Division recognized 60 years of service at nine community meetings and at the Salish ferry celebration.

“Celebrating 60” Merchandising

- WSDOT Ferries Division and its advertising and marketing company Trans4media have launched FerryGear.com.
- Proceeds help benefit the ferry system.

Community Marketing

Launched pilot community advertising program

- Offered gratis advertising space to local chambers of commerce
- In return, WSDOT Ferries Division invited to present affordable advertising for chamber memberships

Community Marketing

WSDOT Ferries Division now has over 35 local businesses from Bainbridge Island and Kitsap County advertising on the ferry system video screens

“Our campaign has generated a wonderful response from our Bainbridge Island Community and visitors. Both are important target audiences for our branded THINK LOCAL FIRST campaign, and it would not have been possible to reach them as completely without your willingness to provide access to the visual components available through the digital screens and graphics on the Bainbridge Island ferry terminal” - Andie Mackin, B.I.D.A.

Community Marketing

Other communities engaged in the program include:

- Anacortes
- Port Townsend
- Coupeville (Whidbey Island)

Next Steps

- Continue expansion of community marketing pilot program
- Create new partnerships and expand existing ones
- Second layer of website improvements
- Promoting ferry tales
- Recording new customer service announcements
- Commemorative anniversary magazine
- Travel packages
